About Mothering Justice

Mothering Justice is a statewide project in Michigan dedicated to empowering mothers of color to influence policy on behalf of themselves and their families. Through advocacy, leadership development, voter empowerment, and promoting family-friendly advocacy, Mothering Justice raises the voices of mothers and helps them become policy shapers. The overall goal of the organization is to have a well-organized group of mothers that can engage fellow parents and lawmakers around a variety of issues that affect working families.

Job Description

Mothering Justice is seeking an effective Child Care Community Organizer to build relationships with mothers, host mama conversations, recruit and mobilize mothers. The heart of the job is leading direct action campaigns, and developing a campaign plan to execute the work and civic engagement efforts. The goal of this position is to deepen the work our members participate in.

Qualifications

- Strong commitment to social/economic justice and community organizing
- Develop a coalition to support the efforts of changing Child Care Policies
- Track record of developing and maintaining relationships with members and recruiting new members (a plus for candidates with experience around Child Care issues)
- Good listening and communication skills with a variety of audiences
- Ability to work autonomously and as a member of a team
- Able to handle multiple projects simultaneously and meet frequent deadlines
- Well-organized and experienced in keeping a work plan
- Self-starter, quick learner, and ability to work in a fast-paced environment
- Experience working in coalition and partnership with other organizations
- Flexibility to work weeknights and weekends

Core Responsibilities

- Direct outreach to community members
- Work with legislators and public officials
- Grow our coalition of organizations
- Facilitate group meetings and presentations
- Prepare outreach materials, such as fliers, cards, and posters
- Other relevant tasks and responsibilities as assigned
